JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

“Court”: Prior to the revision of the Pennsylvania Constitution in 1968, jurisdiction over adoption matters was placed by Section 1(a) of the 1925 Act in the Philadelphia Municipal Court and elsewhere in the orphans’ courts; the revised Judiciary Article abolished orphans’ courts and the municipal court, placing adoption jurisdiction in the orphans’ court division of the several courts of common pleas (Pa.Const., Art. V, Sch. § 4) with two exceptions: in the First Judicial District (Philadelphia) the Constitution placed adoption jurisdiction in the family court division (Art. V, Sch. § 16(q)(iii) ) and in the Fifth Judicial District (Allegheny County) the court by local rule, adopted under the authority of Article V, Schedule Section 17(b), retained adoption jurisdiction in the orphans’ court division.

Proceedings for voluntary relinquishment, involuntary termination and adoption may be brought in the court of the county:

- (1) Where the parent or parents or the adoptee or the person or persons who have filed a report of intention to adopt required by section 2531 (relating to report of intention to adopt) reside.
- (2) In which is located an office of an agency having custody of the adoptee or in the county where the agency having placed the adoptee is located.
- (3) With leave of court, in which the adoptee formerly resided.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This section modifies the venue provisions of Section 1(d) of the 1925 Act by (1) not requiring leave of court to bring the proceeding in the county where the adoptee resides or where the agency's office is located, and (2) by authorizing with leave of court venue in the county where an adoptee formerly resided. The latter change was considered advisable since "pre-adoption" termination proceedings may result in the petitioner and adoptee being nonresidents by the time of the adoption proceeding. The court prior to granting "leave" will assure itself of the appropriateness of proceeding.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Clause (2) is amended to broaden and clarify the venue possibilities. In particular, this amendment deals with the situation in which an agency in one county has custody of the child but an agency in another county does the actual placing of the child. This amendment specifically allows proceedings for voluntary relinquishment, involuntary termination and adoption to be brought in the county where the agency having placed the child is located.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This section modifies the provision of Section 1(d) of the 1925 Act which limited adopting parents to "adults" and a minor spouse adopting his stepchild, the latter being added by the amendment of March 18, 1970, Act No. 70. The increased flexibility is considered appropriate in view of the court's ultimate power to refuse an adoption petition if the circumstances, such as the age of the petitioner, so warrant.

§ 2313. Representation

Currentness

(a) Child.--The court shall appoint counsel to represent the child in an involuntary termination proceeding when the proceeding is being contested by one or both of the parents. The court may appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent any child who has not reached the age of 18 years and is subject to any other proceeding under this part whenever it is in the best interests of the child. No attorney or law firm shall represent both the child and the adopting parent or parents.

(a.1) Parent.--The court shall appoint counsel for a parent whose rights are subject to termination in an involuntary termination proceeding if, upon petition of the parent, the court determines that the parent is unable to pay for counsel or if payment would result in substantial financial hardship.

(b) Payment of costs.--The court, in its discretion, may order all or part of the costs attendant to a proceeding under this part to be paid by the county wherein the case is heard, the adopting parents or apportioned to both, provided that if the adopting parents shall be ordered to bear all or a portion of the costs of this part that:

(1) the court may direct that the payment of the fees or a portion thereof may be paid by a court ordered schedule of payments extending beyond the date of the involuntary termination hearing; and

(2) the fee shall not exceed $150.

Editors' Notes

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This new provision requires the court to appoint counsel for a child when parental rights are being involuntarily terminated and, when necessary, to appoint a guardian ad litem for a child who has not reached the age of 18 years. The guardian ad litem concept is broad enough to allow the appointment of a person other than a lawyer. For example, a social worker could be appointed guardian ad litem within this provision; in an appropriate case a nonlawyer guardian ad litem could request appointment of counsel.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This section, derived from the first paragraph of Section 1.1 of the 1925 Act, was expanded to provide for the relinquishment of parental duties as well as parental rights in the case of agency placements.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

In addition to editorial changes, subsection (a) adds an alternate condition that if met allows the parent or parents of the child to petition the court for permission to relinquish all parental rights and duties. This new provision permits the court to entertain a petition of the parent or parents of the child if the agency has received a written notice executed by the parent of the present intent to transfer custody. The agency is not required to have physical care of the child.

Subsection (a) also reduces the minimum period of time from five days to three days that a child under the age of 18 years has to be in the care of an agency before the parent or parents may file a petition under the first alternative.

Subsection (b) is amended to eliminate the requirement of a written consent of a parent or guardian of a petitioner who has not reached the age of 18 years. Furthermore, the agency having the care of the child is no longer required to join in the petition, but must still consent to accept custody of the child. Since notice of the hearing must be given to the parents of a minor parent pursuant to Section 2503(b), the grandparents' objection if presented to the court may be taken into consideration.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Subsection (a) is amended to make the petitioner's appearance at the hearing mandatory. The petitioner's in-court ratification of consent assures due process requirements in view of the finality of the termination decree as to the parent.

New subsection (b) requires notice of the hearing to be given to the petitioner, other parent and the parents or guardian of a petitioner who has not reached the age of 18 years. See comments to Sections 2501(b) and 2502(b).

Subsection (c) is amended to reverse Commonwealth v. Woolf, 419 A.2d 535, 276 Pa.Super. 433 \(March 21, 1980\) which held that the support obligation was not a duty terminated by a decree of voluntary relinquishment to an agency. This decision, contrary to the plain meaning of the existing statutory language, frustrates the policy to make certain children more available for agency placement for adoption. See 1970 comment to Section 2501, supra.

(a) List of counselors.--Any hospital or other facility providing maternity care shall provide a list of available counselors and counseling services compiled pursuant to subsection (b) to its maternity patients who are known to be considering relinquishment or termination of parental rights pursuant to this part. The patient shall sign an acknowledgment of receipt of such list prior to discharge, a copy of which receipt shall be provided to the patient.

(b) Compilation of list.--The court shall compile a list of qualified counselors and counseling services (including all adoption agencies) which are available to counsel natural parents within the county who are contemplating relinquishment or termination of parental rights pursuant to this part. Such list shall be distributed to every agency, hospital or other facility providing maternity care within the county and shall be made available upon request to any intermediary or licensed health care professional.

(c) Court referral.--Prior to entering a decree of termination of parental rights pursuant to section 2503 (relating to hearing) or 2504 (relating to alternative procedure for relinquishment), if the parent whose rights are to be terminated is present in court, the court shall inquire whether he or she has received counseling concerning the termination and the alternatives thereto from an agency or from a qualified counselor listed by a court pursuant to subsection (b). (e) Counseling fund.--Except as hereinafter provided, each report of intention to adopt filed pursuant to section 2531 (relating to report of intention to adopt) shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the amount of $75 which shall be paid into a segregated fund established by the county. No filing fee may be exacted under this subsection with respect to the adoption of a special needs child who would be eligible for adoption assistance pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Department of Public Welfare. In addition, the court may reduce or waive the fee in cases of demonstrated financial hardship.

§ 2511. Grounds for involuntary termination

Effective: October 28, 2016

Currentness

(a) General rule.--The rights of a parent in regard to a child may be terminated after a petition filed on any of the following grounds:

(1) The parent by conduct continuing for a period of at least six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition either has evidenced a settled purpose of relinquishing parental claim to a child or has refused or failed to perform parental duties.

(2) The repeated and continued incapacity, abuse, neglect or refusal of the parent has caused the child to be without essential parental care, control or subsistence necessary for his physical or mental well-being and the conditions and causes of the incapacity, abuse, neglect or refusal cannot or will not be remedied by the parent.

(3) The parent is the presumptive but not the natural father of the child.

(4) The child is in the custody of an agency, having been found under such circumstances that the identity or whereabouts of the parent is unknown and cannot be ascertained by diligent search and the parent does not claim the child within three months after the child is found.

(5) The child has been removed from the care of the parent by the court or under a voluntary agreement with an agency for a period of at least six months, the conditions which led to the removal or placement of the child continue to exist, the parent cannot or will not remedy those conditions within a reasonable period of time, the services or assistance reasonably available to the parent are not likely to remedy the conditions which led to the removal or placement of the child within a reasonable period of time and termination of the parental rights would best serve the needs and welfare of the child.

(6) In the case of a newborn child, the parent knows or has reason to know of the child's birth, does not reside with the child, has not married the child's other parent, has failed for a period of four months immediately preceding the filing of the petition to make reasonable efforts to maintain substantial and continuing contact with the child and has failed during the same four-month period to provide substantial financial support for the child.

(7) The parent is the father of a child conceived as a result of a rape or incest.

(8) The child has been removed from the care of the parent by the court or under a voluntary agreement with an agency, 12 months or more have elapsed from the date of removal or placement, the conditions which led to the removal or placement of the child continue to exist and termination of parental rights would best serve the needs and welfare of the child.

(9) The parent has been convicted of one of the following in which the victim was a child of the parent:

(i) an offense under 18 Pa.C.S. Ch. 25 (relating to criminal homicide);

(ii) a felony under 18 Pa.C.S. § 2702 (relating to aggravated assault);

(iii) an offense in another jurisdiction equivalent to an offense in subparagraph (i) or (ii); or

(iv) an attempt, solicitation or conspiracy to commit an offense in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii).

(10) The parent has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed sexual abuse against the child or another child of the parent based on a judicial adjudication as set forth in paragraph (1)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) or (4) of the definition of "founded report" in section 6303(a) (relating to definitions) where the judicial adjudication is based on a finding of "sexual abuse or exploitation" as defined in section 6303(a).

(11) The parent is required to register as a sexual offender under 42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 97 Subch. H (relating to registration of sexual offenders)<sup>1</sup> or to register with a sexual offender registry in another jurisdiction or foreign country.

(b) Other considerations.--The court in terminating the rights of a parent shall give primary consideration to the developmental, physical and emotional needs and welfare of the child. The rights of a parent shall not be terminated solely on the basis of environmental factors such as inadequate housing, furnishings, income, clothing and medical care if found to be beyond the control of the parent. With respect to any petition filed pursuant to subsection (a)(1), (6) or (8), the court shall not consider any efforts by the parent to remedy the conditions described therein which are first initiated subsequent to the giving of notice of the filing of the petition.

(c) Right to file personal and medical history information.--At the time the decree of termination is transmitted to the parent whose rights have been terminated, the court shall advise the parent, in writing, of his or her continuing right to place and update personal and medical history information, whether or not the medical condition is in existence or discoverable at the time of adoption, on file with the court and with the Department of Public Welfare pursuant to Subchapter B of Chapter 29<sup>2</sup> (relating to records and access to information).

Editors' Notes

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This section is derived from Section 1.2 of the 1925 Act which required a finding of abandonment for at least six months as codified in clause (1). However, the grounds for abandonment have been broadened; relinquishment of parental claim or failure or refusal to perform parental duties is now sufficient.

Clause (2), suggested by Section 19(c) of the Revised Uniform Juvenile Court Act (1969), differs from "abandonment" in that it centers judicial inquiry upon the welfare of the child rather than the fault of the parent.

Clause (3) is included to allow the court to prevent injustice where a legal father unreasonably withholds consent to an adoption.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Clauses (a)(4) and (a)(5) are two new grounds for involuntary termination.

Clause (4) provides an agency with another ground to terminate parental rights where the child has been abandoned and is in its custody. The agency must show that after a diligent search the identity or whereabouts of the parent cannot be ascertained and that the parent did not claim the child within three months after the child was found.

Clause (5) provides an additional ground in foster care and similar situations. The court must consider the services offered by or available from the agency and the efforts made by the parents to effect a lasting adjustment of the conditions which led to the child's removal from the home. This reverses In re I.R.A., 487 Pa. 563, 410 A.2d 755 (1980).

Subsection (b)(4) includes within the report of intention to adopt "an itemized accounting of moneys and consideration."

Subsection (c) clarifies when no report is required by adding "or adoption." The relationship which triggers this subsection could be created by adoption.

Editors' Notes

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1970

This section is suggested in part by the last paragraph of Section 1(c) of the 1925 Act. The report, now required of all intermediaries, will provide the court with much of the information which previously was required to be included in the adoption petition. Including the information in the report rather than in the petition helps to preserve anonymity between natural and adopting parents.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Subsection (a) is amended to provide a time frame in which the intermediary must make its written report. The report must be made "within six months after filing the report of intention to adopt." This provision attempts to eliminate any possible delays in the adoption process.

Subsection (b)(4) is amended to comport with present constitutional law. See Adoption of Walker, 468 Pa. 165, 360 A.2d 603 \(1976\).

Subsection (b)(8) is amended to substitute the phrase "an itemized accounting of moneys and considerations" for the deleted phrase "the fee or expenses."

Subsection (b)(10) is amended to clarify the clause.

Subsection (b)(11) is partially derived from Section 334(1) of the Adoption Act of 1970 as amended by the act of October 14, 1977 (P.L. 211, No. 61). It provides that the reasons for being unable to obtain a birth certificate or certification of registration are to be set forth within the report.

The report of the intermediary shall have attached to it the following exhibits:

- (2) All consents to adoption required by section 2711 (relating to consents necessary to adoption).

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Clause (2) is amended to require all consents required by Section 2711 (relating to consents necessary to adoption) be attached to the intermediary's report. Clause (2) eliminates the second and third sentences of Section 334(1) of the Adoption Act, as amended, since the reasons required by the eliminated language should be in the report.

The phrase "of parental rights or parental rights and duties" is added to clarify clause (3).

Currentness

(a) General rule.--When a report required by section 2531 (relating to report of intention to adopt) has been filed, the court shall cause an investigation to be made and a report filed by a local public child care agency, a voluntary child care agency with its consent or an appropriate person designated by the court. In lieu of the investigation, the court may accept an investigation made by the agency which placed the child and the report of investigation in such cases may be incorporated into the report of the intermediary required by section 2533 (relating to report of intermediary).

(b) Matters covered.--The investigation shall cover all pertinent information regarding the child's eligibility for adoption and the suitability of the placement, including the physical, mental and emotional needs and welfare of the child, and the child's and the adopting parents' age, sex, health and racial, ethnic and religious background.

(c) Payment of costs.--The court may establish the procedure for the payment of investigation costs.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Clause (1) is amended to eliminate the requirement that a local public child care agency consent to making an investigation, while clause (2) is amended by requiring the consent of a voluntary child care agency. Public policy is better satisfied by allowing a voluntary agency the option to decline to make an investigation.

Subsection (b) adds that among the matters covered by the investigation shall be the "physical, mental and emotional

This section is derived from Section 1(d) of the 1925 Act. The requirement of a statement "whether the person proposed to be adopted is heir to property or assets of any sort through his or her natural parent or parents"--which always has been answered "no" with hesitancy--is deleted.

This section and Section 2533 require all essential information. Omitting the information concerning the adoptee and his natural parents from the petition when possible, preserves anonymity.

JT. ST. GOVT. COMM. COMMENT--1980

Clause (7) is amended to require that all consents required by Section 2711 be attached to the petition as exhibits.

Clause (9) is derived from Section 402(2) of the Adoption Act of 1970 as amended by the act of October 14, 1977 (P.L. 211, No. 61); this is included in the petition since a request is being made of the court.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in this part, consent to an adoption shall be required of the following:

(ii) For a consent to an adoption executed by a birth mother, the consent is irrevocable more than 30 days after the execution of the consent.

(2) An individual may not waive the revocation period under paragraph (1).

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the following apply:

(i) An individual who executed a consent to an adoption may challenge the validity of the consent only by filing a petition alleging fraud or duress within the earlier of the following time frames:

(A) Sixty days after the birth of the child or the execution of the consent, whichever occurs later.

(B) Thirty days after the entry of the adoption decree.

(ii) A consent to an adoption may be invalidated only if the alleged fraud or duress under subparagraph (i) is proven by:

(A) a preponderance of the evidence in the case of consent by a person 21 years of age or younger; or

(B) clear and convincing evidence in all other cases.

(d) Contents of consent.--

§ 2711. Consents necessary to adoption, PA ST 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 2711

Language is deleted from clause (3) to reflect that a person is now an adult at 18 years of age and to conform with the decision in Adoption of Walker, 468 Pa. 165, 360 A.2d 603 (1976), which held that the provision that required only the consent of the mother of an illegitimate child was unconstitutional.

Clause (4) is new.

The requirement of consent of a husband of the mother formerly in clause (3) is codified as subsection (b).
